

Letter for parishioners

(to be read out at the end of all Masses on Weekend 31 Oct/01 Nov)

Dear friends,

The Archdiocese is launching an online Diploma in Catechetics in January.

It's open to anyone who wants to learn more about their faith and to deepen their understanding of Catholic theology.

It's easy to take part. Each Thursday evening you join a 45-minute lecture on Zoom from the comfort of your home. The course is led by Sister Anna Marie McGuan, our new Catechetics Advisor, who will be joined by priests, religious and lay people in delivering the course.

I particularly invite anyone involved in the catechetical work of the Church to get involved – such as children's liturgists, RCIA team members, teachers and youth group leaders.

In these days of enforced social isolation and of limited possibilities to bring people together, I think this is an excellent initiative. I sincerely encourage any of you who want to deepen your faith to think seriously about taking up this opportunity.

You can register now by emailing Sister Anna Marie. Her email is on the poster at the back of the church. Find out more on the news section of the Archdiocesan website or visit our Facebook and Twitter.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ Leo Cushley

+Leo Cushley
Archbishop of St Andrews & Edinburgh