

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST ANDREWS & EDINBURGH
Commission for Marriage & Families

Meet the Commission's Members...

Fr Jeremy Milne, VE

St John the Baptist & St Kentigern, Edinburgh

Fr Jeremy is the Vicar Episcopal for Marriage & Families. Father Milne grew up in Kent and moved to Scotland in 1992 to study at Edinburgh University. There he gained both a BSc and a PhD in Ecological Science. He was received into the Catholic Church in 2006 and studied for the priesthood at the Beda College in Rome prior to being ordained in 2012.

Anna and Janusz Niececki

St Ninian's, Restalrig

Anna and Janusz have been married for over 20 years. They are members of 'Domestic Church' – a movement for sacramentally married Catholic couples and families who want to grow in mutual love and pursue sanctity together. They have been involved in organising various formation activities and events for married couples and for families.

Paul Atkin

St Columba's Edinburgh

Paul is responsible for our Pro-Life Office which supports and builds a culture of life across the Archdiocese. The Archdiocesan Pro-Life Office covers issues at the beginning and end of life including the unborn, their mothers, the disabled, the aged & dying. We encourage pregnancy support initiatives to provide much needed alternatives to abortion.

Andrew and Rosemary Milligan

St Andrew's, Ravelston

Andrew and Rosemary have been married for 37 years, have two sons, and are involved parishioners of St Andrew's Ravelston. Andrew is an economist and Rosemary a medieval historian. They are members of Equipes Notre Dame and assist Fr Jeremy on marriage preparation courses.

Deacon John and Louise Smith

St Peter's and St.Columba's, Edinburgh

Deacon John and Louise have been married 41 years and they are parishioners of St Peter's and St.Columba's in Edinburgh. They have been involved in marriage preparation for the last eight years. Louise is a retired nurse and Deacon John is a part-time secondary teacher.
