

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST ANDREWS & EDINBURGH
Commission for Catechetics

Meet the Commission Members...

Fr Daniel Doherty, VE

St Patrick's Parish, Kilsyth

Father Doherty hails from Falkirk and studied for the priesthood at Scotus College in East Dunbartonshire. He was ordained in 1998. Since then he has served in parishes in Fife, Edinburgh and Stirlingshire.

Joan Forster

St Patrick's Parish, Kilsyth

Joan is a retired lab technician. She assists with RCIA, is a member of the parish Caritas Group and runs the Parish Welcome Group. She has a particular interest in adult formation.

Gordon Wood

St Joseph's Parish, Burntisland

Gordon is depute headteacher at a Catholic secondary school in the Archdiocese. He has three children and has a keen interest in youth initiatives that help engage young people with their faith.

Sister Mirjam Hugens FSO (Spiritual Family The Work)

St Columba Parish, Edinburgh

Sr Mirjam is the secretary to the Archbishop, is involved in youth and young adult ministry and is the Archdiocese's Vocation Director for Religious. Sr Mirjam has taught Sacramental Classes in the Netherlands, US and at St Columba's since 2017.

Stephanie Fitzgerald

St Patrick's Parish, Kilsyth

Stephanie is a primary school teacher and leader of children's liturgy in her parish. She has been involved in children's catechesis for several years and is interested in sacramental preparation and children developing a deeper understanding of their faith.

Christopher Wotherspoon

St Margaret's Parish, Queensferry

Chris read Theology at the University of Aberdeen before studying to become a teacher at the University of Glasgow. He taught Religious Education at three Catholic schools in London: Cardinal Wiseman, Cardinal Vaughan and the London Oratory. He moved back to Scotland in 2016 and is Head of RE at St Thomas of Aquin's in Edinburgh.

Father Jamie McMorrin

St Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh

Fr Jamie grew up in Kinghorn and trained for the priesthood at Scots College, Rome, where he specialised in Liturgy. Since ordination in 2016 he has served as assistant priest in the Catholic parishes of Falkirk and, since 2018, at St Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh, where he is involved in youth and young adult ministry and ongoing faith formation for adults, as well as assisting the Archbishop as Master of Ceremonies.

Christine Clark

St Andrew's Parish, Livingston

Christine is a mum of four and a secondary teacher of Modern Languages and Additional Special Needs. She has worked for many years as a catechist in RCIA and CIC and as a youth group leader.

Thérèse Feeney

St Margaret's, South Queensferry

Thérèse is a volunteer with Children's Liturgy and helps compile a weekly Children's Liturgy guide for the Archdiocese. She works in a local hospital for the NHS as a Clinical Pharmacist.
