

Aged & Infirm Clergy Fund of the Archdiocese of St Andrews & Edinburgh

Catholic since birth? Joined later in life? Do you have fond memories of a priest who has now retired? One who shared the joy of your wedding day or helped your family through a difficult time?

Supporting the Aged & Infirm Clergy Fund allows us to show our support of and gratitude for our retired priests. Twenty Seven Priests are currently supported by the Fund, which provides a retirement grant, suitable accommodation and a monthly allowance to our retired priests. The Fund is generously supported by the people of the Archdiocese through two special collections each year.

Generous donations have been made by some individuals and legacies have also been left in wills, essential if we are to build up the Fund and support our priests in retirement in the future. The priests of the Archdiocese offer three Masses per year for the Benefactors of the Fund. If you wish to make a donation or leave a legacy in your will please contact:

Anderson Strathern understands that not everyone will see legal expertise as a path to growth or development. Over the years, we have worked with a wide range of clients with an even wider range of needs. From land owners developing the rural landscape, to businesses transforming the industrial landscape. From the acquisition of major shopping destinations, to multi-national projects involving far off destinations; and, of course, to life's more sobering circumstances, from relationship arrangements to succession planning and wills. And so, we've come to realise that everyone who has approached us has an ambition to get somewhere with as little stress as possible. So that's what we do. We realise those ambitions. No matter what's asked of us, we get the job done and we get it done well, helping you go from strength to strength.

National Shrine of the Venerable Margaret Sinclair

In October 2003 the mortal remains of the Venerable Margaret Sinclair were transferred from Mount Vernon Cemetery, Edinburgh and laid to rest in a purpose built tomb in St Patrick's, Cowgate, Edinburgh.

In the years since her death, thousands of people have turned to her in their need and have asked her prayers. Through her intercession it is believed that many miracles have occurred.

The shrine is normally open from 9.00am to 6.00pm daily for individuals and groups who wish to come and pray. Prayer cards, books, leaflets and candles are available from the parish shop from 11.00am to 1.15pm Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and after Sunday Masses.

Mass and devotions to pray for her beatification take place on the 1st Saturday of every month at 12.30pm.

Each year there is an Annual Pilgrimage in her honour.

Notes

Dates — Dates given in the heading for each parish generally indicate the years in which the parish/mission began its existence as an independent entity and the present church was opened.

First date: the date of foundation of the independent parish/mission

Last date: year in which the current church was formally opened.

(Source: parish entries in The Catholic Directory for Scotland, 1929 onwards.)

Postal Addresses — County names do not form part of a postal address; nor does the name of the local authority area (unless it is also the post town).

Catholic Schools — The name of a school without brackets indicates that it is within the parish. The name of a primary school within brackets indicates that it is in another parish, but part or all of the parish falls within its official catchment area.

— The building has a loop aerial for hearing aid users.

— The building has easy access for wheel-chair users.

— The building has adapted toilet facilities for disabled people (sometimes in an adjacent hall rather than in the Church itself).

THE PERSONAL ORDINARIATE OF OUR LADY OF WALSINGHAM

On 4th November 2009 Pope Benedict XVI issued the Apostolic Constitution Anglicanorum coetibus. On 15th January 2011, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith published a decree establishing a 'Personal Ordinariate' in England and Wales. This allows members of the Ordinariate to preserve within the Catholic Church the elements of Anglican ecclesial prayer, liturgy and pastoral practice that are concordant with Catholic teaching.

FRANCE — In lieu of the ancient Scots Colleges in Paris (founded 1325) and Douai (founded 1576) suppressed during the French Revolution, the French Government makes available bursaries for Scottish Ecclesiastical Students in French Seminaries. Since 1970, studies in Paris have usually only been undertaken by (post-graduate) priests.

The Reverend Pat Clarke

Fr Pat Clarke's life was one of priestly sacrifice.

He had latterly been dedicated to caring for his long-time housekeeper Moira Richmond, who had been diagnosed with a brain tumour, at his home in Lundin Links.

Moira died within 24 hours of Pat himself being admitted to hospital for assessment. The very day after her funeral on 7th February 2021, he received a phone call from the Western General Hospital and was told he had terminal lung cancer.

His sister Molly said: "I went with him to the hospital. The consultant asked if he had been aware that he was ill. He said he knew something was wrong but that his main concern was Moira, and that he had no regrets."

Fr Pat could be stubborn and strong willed, and that often-benefited others.

He was regarded as the driving force behind the construction of much-needed roads in Bauchi, Nigeria, where he served as a missionary from 1967 to 1980. Even as a teenage student at St Mary's College in Blairs, Aberdeenshire, the junior national seminary, he was known for his hard work.

His brother Ivor was delighted to be told by a priest colleague of Fr Pat's at Blairs that they looked alike but that he was more upstanding than him! He meant that he remembered Fr Pat as always being bent over in study.

Early Years

Patrick Clarke was born in Broxburn, West Lothian, on 5 November 1938. He was the third son born to Patrick, a shale miner, and Catherine, before the onset of the Second World War. They were blessed with three boy-girl sets of twins born during the war (the family joke was that Churchill asked everyone to redouble their efforts).

The family moved to nearby Winchburgh while he was a baby and he attended Holy Family Primary School.

When he was about 10, he was diagnosed with Perthes disease, a rare childhood condition that affects the hips. His was treated over several months at Peel Hospital near Galashiels where his leg was put in plaster.

When the plaster on the affected leg failed to immobilise him, both legs were put in plaster with a steel bar fixed between so that he could be lifted and laid. The family can still recall the energetic youngster in plaster attempting to climb the drainpipe of the house!

Despite missing a year at Holy Family, he ended his time there as Dux in 1951 and aged 12, encouraged by his parish priest Canon Michael Murnin, he decided to attend the college at Blairs. As well as being studious, he enjoyed playing football and was a Hibs supporter. He also enjoyed watching cricket, thanks to a cricket daft uncle from County Durham.

The family later learned from his housemaster that he had suffered greatly from homesickness during his first weeks at Blairs, but Patrick never mentioned it in his letters. Ivor said: "We suspect that he didn't want to upset mum." He then continued to St Andrew's College, Drygrange, the seminary near Melrose, to continue his studies for the priesthood from 1956 to 1962.

Ordination and Africa

He was 24 years old when he was ordained by Archbishop Gordon Gray at St Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh, on 7 April in 1962. He first served as a curate to Fr Gerard McGarry at Sacred Heart Parish in Cowie, Stirling. The priest left a deep impression on him.

"Fr McGarry was very strict with his curates and how they should be priests to the people – he trained Patrick well," said Ivor. "Patrick told me that Fr McGarry would never allow there to be a sick parishioner who wasn't visited or allow his curates to stay out late unless they were visiting the sick.

"Patrick had the highest regard for him. His emphasis on the service of priests to the sick and the needy was very influential on Patrick and on his decision to go to Africa."

Archbishop (soon to be Cardinal) Gray responded to an appeal from Pope Paul VI for missionaries to Africa. He asked for volunteers from his clergy to staff a mission station in the Bauchi province in the north of Nigeria. Fr Pat's decision to become a missionary did not surprise his family, who had a lot of contact with missionary priests, such as the White Fathers, who were a positive influence. Priests were asked to serve six years; Fr Pat did much more, serving in the Islam-dominated region for 13 years.

His friend Fr John Agnew, also a priest of the Archdiocese, who served with him in Nigeria, said: "He was energetic and a great missionary and was well known for his contribution to improving a 15-mile stretch of road between Pankshin and Gambar."

Fr Pat enlisted professional support from oil industry contacts and ex-pats to acquire and install large concrete culverts necessary for these projects and was dogged in seeing them through to completion. Not only that, but he also contributed to the building of much needed churches, schools and a hospital.

Fr Pat adapted well in Bauchi, learning local languages and helping bring many souls to Christ. His influence, along with many missionary priests, led to the conversion of many Nigerians to Catholicism, the fruits of which we see today.

Fr Agnew added: "When we first went to Nigeria there was one priest in the whole diocese, and it was the size of the UK! Now look and see how many Nigerian priests there are, many of them working in Scotland today; that's something we were happy to be involved in."

Fr Pat arrived in Africa just as the Nigerian Civil War broke out between the north and the south. While he managed to avoid the worst trouble, it was still an anxious time, with some missionaries having to flee the country.

Ivor said: "He only spoke once about the experience: we were talking, and I can't recall what I had said to him, but his response was, 'Look, you don't know what it's like to have a gun pointed at you'."

Scotland

Fr Pat returned to Scotland in 1980 and served at St Luke's in Banknock until 1986. He was then appointed to St Patrick's in Lochgelly (1986-1993) before his final appointment at St Marie's in Kirkcaldy. While chaplain to the town's Victoria Hospital, he would visit each night to check on those under his care as he saw the role as an important part of his priestly work, no doubt a legacy of his training under Fr McGarry all those years ago.

In 1999 he retired to nearby Lundin Links along with Moira, who had been working with him since 1981, and who was regarded by the Clarkes as one of the family. He continued to help at St Agatha's in Methil and St Giles in Kennoway, until October 2019.

In 2020 he had lost weight, suffered breathlessness and had a persistent cough. His family believe he had been too busy caring for Moira (with help from his sister Molly) to see a doctor about his own declining health. He was diagnosed with lung cancer in February 2021 and died on 25 July 2021, aged 82.

Fr Pat loved God, loved being a priest and loved the Holy Mass. He was strict in terms of the rules and laws of the church, but also understanding, compassionate and had a good sense of humour.

May his sacrifice for others in Christ's name in this life lead to eternal glory in the next. Requiescat in Pace.

Very Rev. Philip Canon Doherty

The fruitfulness of Philip Doherty's priesthood is witnessed in the deep affection with which parishioners held him.

This was nurtured by serving the Catholics of Cowdenbeath for more than 30 years.

He did so with dedication, sensitivity and good humour.

Canon Doherty described the focus of his day as "Holy Mass, praying the Divine Office, administering the Sacraments and being with people".

It was that pastoral role that helped him in his priesthood: "The faith of the people strengthens the faith of the priest".

He made the above comment at the celebration of the 60th Anniversary of his ordination in 2015 at Our Lady & St Bride's.

He said: "Very often I'm amazed at the faith of people, especially when they are in difficult circumstances and there's still a joy about them, and their faith is not dented one little bit. That impresses me."

There was an outpouring of tributes on social media following the news of his death.

People recalled his keen sense of humour, his wisdom and friendliness – he went out his way to make everyone feel welcome at his parish.

One wrote: "We were blessed to have Father Doherty as our parish priest for so many years. He has left imprints on many hearts."

Philip Doherty was born on 17 May 1931 in Cowie, Stirling, the youngest of ten children born to James and Catherine, who had come to Scotland from Donegal. Two of those children died in infancy before Philip was born.

Philip was baptised at Sacred Heart Church, attended primary school in the village, and was a short time at St Modan's High School, Stirling, before heading to Blairs College, the junior seminary in Aberdeenshire. His brother Frank, who was four years older, had gone to Blairs before him and then to senior seminary at Oscott, Birmingham. He too became a priest of the Archdiocese of St Andrews & Edinburgh.

Philip studied alongside two others who would become priests of the Archdiocese – and great friends of his – Canon John McAllister and the late Monsignor Tony McNally.

They attended St Sulpice seminary in Paris together, which inspired Canon Doherty's love of France (he spoke fluent French). They regularly returned to visit St Sulpice.

The three men were ordained by Archbishop Gordon Gray at St Mary's Cathedral in Edinburgh on 2 July 1955.

Canon Doherty's first parish was St Cuthbert's in Edinburgh, where he spent six years.

He then served in St Alexander's in Denny (1961-62), St Marie's in Kirkcaldy (1962-72) and St Margaret's in Gorebridge (1972-85) before moving to Cowdenbeath where he was parish priest for 30 years.

He served as Provost of the Metropolitan Cathedral Chapter 2014-15.

He was known for his good sense of humour (described by one retired priest as "bonhomie") and being a gracious host who liked to put people at ease and who enjoyed the company of his brother priests.

He had a sharp intellect, was shrewd, and took seriously his duty of obedience to the Church, the Liturgy, Her dogma and traditions.

He was a skilled preacher who would not shy away from highlighting difficult truths, but in a way that remained charitable and inclusive.

He refused the opportunity to retire at the age of 75 so he could continue serving the people of the parish.

Into his 80s, he was fit enough to walk around Cowdenbeath every day and he continued to regularly concelebrate Mass with the priests of the Institute of the Incarnate Word (IVE) who came to Our Lady & St Bride's (now part of The Holy Family parish). It was only in recent years that his mobility declined. He would be helped on to the altar for Mass and soon experienced increasing deafness.

Fr Nicholas Grace IVE said: "Canon Doherty was loved by the people here. He was an absolute gentleman and a pleasure to be around.

"Even at the age of 88 he delivered fantastic sermons at the funerals of parishioners when called upon."

Canon Doherty had a very strong sense of family. He was devoted to his parents and to his siblings, as they were to him. He took a great interest in his nieces and nephews and their families.

Over the years he celebrated many family baptisms, weddings and funerals.

He loved company, and he enjoyed getting together with family to relax with them over a meal and a glass of wine.

A statement from family and friends said: "Fr Doherty was a very caring and holy man, a wonderful and dedicated priest to his parishioners.

"He always had a story for every occasion and was very witty. He will be sadly missed by all who knew and respected him.

"Fathers Franco Liporace and Nicholas Grace have been a great support to Fr Doherty and also to Mary, his dedicated and trusted housekeeper of 44 years."

Canon Philip Doherty died after a short illness at his home in King Street, Cowdenbeath, on Saturday 30 October. He was 90. He was laid to rest at Beath Cemetery. May he rest in peace.

Rt Rev. Mgr Anthony Canon Duffy

The outpouring of tributes made following the death of Mgr Anthony Canon Duffy did not come as a surprise to his family.

Such is the memory of the man they said "worked, lived and breathed solely for the good of others".

That was demonstrated in his dedication to Lourdes; he was an energetic and welcoming presence for pilgrims and attended the shrine every year, save for two occasions.

In 1975, Pope Paul VI proclaimed a Holy Year, with special indulgences granted for those who journeyed to Rome. While that meant no trip to France, he and a group of volunteers arranged a mini 'Lourdes at Home', taking a group of sick and disabled people down to St Andrew's College in Drygrange. The event also saw Bishop James Monaghan attend. Mgr Duffy was prevented from attending in 2020 due to travel restrictions, following the coronavirus pandemic.

Mgr Duffy became pilgrimage director for the Archdiocese of St Andrews & Edinburgh in 1983, a role he continued with compassion and good humour until his death.

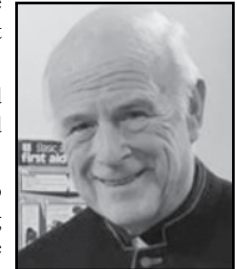

He would join volunteers in helping transport the ill and disabled on a jumbulance, and from 1986 to 1998 he was the chaplain to the Association of the British Lourdes Pilgrimage Hospitalites (ABLPH), a forum for the many groups involved in organising pilgrimages. He enjoyed representing the Archdiocese at its annual meetings in Lourdes each February.

The Edinburgh Hospitalité and Pilgrimage Committees said: "For the Lourdes community, the sense of loss is profound as Fr Tony was our Pilgrimage Director for many years."

The day following his death, a candle was lit at the shrine in his memory.

Anthony Leonard Duffy was born in Edinburgh on 27 May 1947 to Harry and Lilian Duffy and was baptised at Sacred Heart Church in Lauriston.

He was an only child and grew up in a tenement in the Grassmarket area of the city, attending nearby St Ignatius Primary School in Tollcross then Holy Cross Academy. He was heavily involved in the Scouts at St Patrick's Church in the Cowgate, and the Friday night gatherings would lead to lifelong friendships and a likely spiritual spur leading him on the path to priesthood.

One such friendship was with Fr Ian Laurenson OFM, a chaplain to the scouts. Mgr Duffy, along with fellow Edinburgh-based priest and former scout Gerry Hand, would later visit Fr Laurenson in South Africa just before his death in 2012.

Mgr Duffy left school in fifth year and found work with the Bank of Scotland in Edinburgh.

He quit this job after two years to test his vocation to the priesthood and was accepted into the seminary at St Andrew's College in 1967.

He was a good footballer and enjoyed playing for the seminary team. As a keen singer he was part of a folk group with fellow seminarians called 'The Coblers' who would play for local community groups throughout the Borders. As it was the 'swinging sixties', his mother made flower pattern ties for the group to wear while performing.

After six years of study, he was ordained by Cardinal Gordon Gray at the Sacred Heart Church in 1973.

He spent time ministering at St Patrick's in Kilsyth and had a first stint at St Cuthbert's, Slateford (1973-1979). He then served at St Paul's Edinburgh (1979-1984) followed by a year at The Sacred Heart & St Anthony (1984) in Armadale.

In 1984 he was appointed parish priest at St Mary Magdalene's in Bingham, Edinburgh, where he ministered for five years.

He served as Treasurer for the Archdiocese for over 30 years and was a canon of the Metropolitan Chapter. Until his death was parish priest at both St Cuthbert's in Slateford, which he had served since 1989, and Our Lady, Mother of the Church, in Currie, since 1998. Illness in the weeks before his death meant he had to step back from the role. In recent years he was the Catholic Church's representative on the City of Edinburgh Council's Education, Children and Families Committee.

He served as a chaplain for St Cuthbert's Primary School and St Augustine's High School for many years.

The pile of cards in his hospital room at the Western General from primary pupils demonstrated the fondness with which he was held (hospital staff said his room was "filled with love").

Following his death, a statement from St Augustine's said: "He was a huge presence for us and very happy to be part of our school community. "He loved his time here, pinching chips at lunchtime, telling you your tie was on upside down and being there for us when we needed him."

He would take part in school ski trips and is remembered for keeping company any pupils who were unable to ski.

In 1984 he drove a minibus to Rome for pupils, camping en route, when they had an audience with the Pope. A former pupil said: "He knew exactly how to handle us. He never insisted that we attend any of the services he held in his tent. I respected him so much for that."

Another former pupil, Judith Ralston, now a BBC weather presenter, credited Mgr Duffy with helping her become an opera singer: "This lovely man was with me all the way through my formative years. He took me to my first opera, the one that inspired me to become an opera singer." Mgr Duffy himself was no slouch when it came to singing and at one time was a member of the Archdiocesan Cathedral Choir and the Edinburgh Festival Choir.

The passing of Mgr Tony will most profoundly be felt by his family. They said: "Tony was the first port of call for family baptisms, marriages and funerals. He had no time for fuss or undue ceremony, because he didn't need it, as his liturgies demonstrated.

"In the priesthood he quite literally found his true vocation; and the grace of ordination fulfilled his natural talents.

"An only child himself, he revelled in his wider family particularly his nephews and nieces as they grew to adulthood and had their own families. He was a favourite uncle, and they will miss him enormously. As do we all."

For a man who loved social interaction and ministering to people, the pastoral constraints of lockdown, which restricted visits to care homes and closed schools, chafed with him before illness took over.

He died peacefully at the Western General in the early hours of Wednesday 12 May 2021 fortified by the rites of Holy Church. He was 73. His funeral took place at St Cuthbert's on Tuesday 25 May and his final resting place is with his mother and father at the city's Mount Vernon Catholic Cemetery.

With attendance restrictions in place due to the coronavirus pandemic, it meant far fewer people were at the funeral than would be expected for a man who made a profound and positive impact in the Archdiocese and in Lourdes.

The Reverend John Scally

John Scally was born on 1 August 1964 and baptised at St Bernard's in Ballingry. He attended St Kenneth's Primary school in the town before attending St Columba's High School in Dunfermline. He was accepted to study at Edinburgh University and graduated with BD Hons in Ecclesiastical History & Systematic Theology. Thereafter he studied for the priesthood at Gillis Seminary in Edinburgh. He was ordained at St Kenneth's in Lochore in 1993 and served at the Immaculate Conception in Bathgate until 1997, at St Philip's, in Dedridge, Livingston (1998-99) and then Ss John & Columba in Rosyth (2000-2006). In 2006 he began ministry at the English Speaking Catholic Mission in Zurich, Switzerland. After a long illness he died peacefully on Tuesday 1 June 2021. A Requiem Mass for Fr Scally took place in St Kenneth & St Bernard's, Ballingry. He was 56. May he rest in peace.
