

Aged & Infirm Clergy Fund of the Archdiocese of St Andrews & Edinburgh

Do you have fond memories of a priest who has now retired? One who shared the joy of your wedding day or helped your family through a difficult time?

Supporting the Aged & Infirm Clergy Fund allows us to show our support of, and gratitude for, our retired priests. They supported us in our hour of need, without hesitation.

Twenty-four retired priests are currently supported by the Fund, which provides their retirement provision: modest accommodation and a monthly allowance. The Fund has a shortfall which will take time and effort to address, so needs and appreciates individual donations from the people of the Archdiocese.

In the past, donations of all shapes and sizes have been made by individual parishioners – both regular giving and one-off amounts – legacies have also been left in Wills. We need to build up the Fund and secure the shared provision for our retired priests. If you wish to make a donation or leave a legacy in your Will, please contact:

Anderson Strathern understands that not everyone will see legal expertise as a path to growth or development. Over the years, we have worked with a wide range of clients with an even wider range of needs. From land owners developing the rural landscape, to business transforming the industrial landscape. From the acquisition of major shopping destinations, to multi-national projects involving far off destinations; and, of course, to life's more sobering circumstances, from relationship arrangements to succession planning and wills. And so, we've come to realise that everyone who has approached us has an ambition to get somewhere with as little stress as possible. So that's what we do. We realise those ambitions. No matter what's asked of us, we get the job done and we get it done well, helping you go from strength to strength.

St. Patrick's
Cowgate - Edinburgh

National Shrine of the Venerable Margaret Sinclair

In October 2003 the mortal remains of the Venerable Margaret Sinclair were transferred from Mount Vernon Cemetery, Edinburgh and laid to rest in a purpose-built tomb located in the Sacred Heart Chapel at St Patrick's, Cowgate, Edinburgh.

In the years since her death, thousands of people have turned to her in their need and have asked her prayers. Your present intentions will help her to be beatified.

The shrine is open daily from 8.00am to 7.00pm (closes after 5.30pm Vespers and Benediction on Sunday) for individuals and groups who wish to come and pray. Prayer cards, books, leaflets, and candles are available from the parish shop (ask for this to be opened before Masses). You can also send your intentions through the parish website.

There is a Mass held for her each Tuesday at 12.30pm, followed by prayers for her beatification.

An annual pilgrimage in her honour takes place each year. In 2025, the pilgrimage will be held on Sunday, 21 September.

For more information about the Venerable Margaret Sinclair, the Annual Pilgrimage Day, or to organise parish or school outings to visit the shrine, please contact:

Notes

Dates — Dates given in the heading for each parish generally indicate the years in which the parish/mission began its existence as an independent entity and the present church was opened.

First date: the date of foundation of the independent parish/mission

Last date: year in which the current church was formally opened.

(Source: parish entries in The Catholic Directory for Scotland, 1929 onwards.)

Postal Addresses — County names do not form part of a postal address; nor does the name of the local authority area (unless it is also the post town).

Catholic Schools — The name of a school without brackets indicates that it is within the parish. The name of a primary school within brackets indicates that it is in another parish, but part or all of the parish falls within its official catchment area.

— The building has a loop aerial for hearing aid users.

— The building has easy access for wheel-chair users.

— The building has adapted toilet facilities for disabled people (sometimes in an adjacent hall rather than in the Church itself).

Archdiocesan Pastoral Council

The function of the Pastoral Council, under the authority of the Archbishop, is to study and weigh those matters which concern the pastoral work of the Archdiocese and to propose practical conclusions concerning them. The Pastoral Council is composed of clerics, religious and especially laypeople. It is appointed for a fixed period in accordance with statutes drawn up by the Archbishop, and it lapses when the see is vacant (cf. cann. 511-513).

PATIENT'S RELIGIOUS DECLARATION

I am a Catholic.

While a patient in hospital, I wish to exercise my Human Right, as enshrined in the European Convention on Human Rights (Article 9§1) of practising my Religion.

I request that the Catholic Chaplain be informed of my admission to hospital, and that I receive a visit from the Catholic Chaplain.

I give explicit consent for this information to be made available to the Catholic Chaplain and I would request that this document form part of my personal case notes.

THE PERSONAL ORDINARIATE OF OUR LADY OF WALSINGHAM

On 4th November 2009 Pope Benedict XVI issued the Apostolic Constitution Anglicanorum coetibus. On 15th January 2011, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith published a decree establishing a 'Personal Ordinariate' in England and Wales. This allows members of the Ordinariate to preserve within the Catholic Church the elements of Anglican ecclesial prayer, liturgy and pastoral practice that are concordant with Catholic teaching.

ORDINATIONS 2024PRIESTHOOD

Rev. Paul Urquhart Henderson MSW BTh was born on 21st February 1964 in Dundee and attended Grove Academy in Broughty Ferry. He completed a Masters in Social Work at the University of Edinburgh and went into a career in the social services, working particularly with people with disabilities. Having been baptised in the Church of Scotland, and confirmed as an adult in the Anglican Communion, he was received into the Catholic Church in the Cathedral in Edinburgh in 2016. In 2020 he began studying for the priesthood at the Pontifical Beda College, Rome, where he completed the Bachelor of Theology course accredited by St. Mary's University, Twickenham. On 29th June 2024 he was ordained in St. Mary's Metropolitan Cathedral by Most. Rev. Leo Cushley, Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, who has now appointed him to St. Margaret's, Davidsons Mains and St. John the Baptist & St. Kentigern's, Edinburgh.

Rev. Peter John Shankland BA(Hons) BTh PGDE was born on 1st April 1973 at Strathaven, South Lanarkshire, and he attended Holy Cross High School, Hamilton, before going to Queen Margaret University in Edinburgh where he completed a BA in Retail Business. He later completed the post graduate diploma in education for primary school teaching at the University of Glasgow. He worked in retail at British Gas and at Edinburgh Trams and had a brief spell in teaching. In 2020 he began studying for the priesthood at the Pontifical Beda College, Rome, where he completed the Bachelor of Theology course accredited by St. Mary's University, Twickenham. On 29th June 2024 he was ordained in St. Mary's Metropolitan Cathedral by Most. Rev. Leo Cushley, Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, who has now appointed him to St. Francis Xavier's, Falkirk.

The Reverend Thomas McNulty

Fr Thomas McNulty was a caring, humorous, and holy man who wanted to be a priest from a young age. He was dedicated and happy in his role as a pastor of souls and continued to be active in ministry long after his official retirement.

Thomas McNulty was born in Chicago in 1933 to parents John and Jean who had emigrated from Scotland and he was baptised at St Cyril's in the city. They returned to Scotland in 1937 and the family, including his four sisters (Margaret, Mary, Frances and Sally) lived in the Sighthill area of Edinburgh.

Tom attended St John's in Portobello (1938-1940) and Holy Cross in Edinburgh (1940-45) before heading to Blairs College, the junior seminary in Aberdeenshire. He would joke that when considering his vocation, he approached his parish priest and said: "Father, I've got half a mind to become a priest". "That's good, son," the priest replied, "it's all you'll need!"

He studied for the priesthood at St Sulpice in Paris (1951-56) and was ordained at St Mary's Cathedral in Edinburgh in 1956 alongside his good friend Fr James Friel (1933-2019).

He served in seven parishes in the Archdiocese: St Mary, Kirkcaldy (1956-1963), St Bernadette, Larbert (1963-1969), St Columba, Edinburgh (1969-1972), Our Lady & St Margaret, Duns (1972-1984) St Kentigern, Edinburgh (1984-1998), Sacred Heart, Penicuik (1998-2001) and Our Lady of the Waves, Dunbar (2002-2006), from where he retired.

Fr Tom's longest appointment was at St Kentigern's, and parishioners have fond memories of his time there. When he first arrived to begin his ministry, a parishioner offered to help fetch his bags not knowing that all his belongings were in the one bag he was already carrying.

He managed to strike the balance of being sociable and approachable while also enjoying his own company and long walks (he would often head into the Pentland hills with his dog, and at one time had a camper van to take him further afield).

He was a prayerful man who enjoyed a joke and was known for having a good rapport with the children. At one Good Friday service, he pleased the parents of a young girl who was crying following the death of Jesus by reassuring her that Jesus would be back on Sunday!

He had a good cohort of altar servers and would treat them with a trip to the panto each Christmas, followed by fish and chips. Two of his former servers later invited him to minister at their respective weddings. Parishioners also remember him sending sick people and helpers to Lourdes and he was faithful to the Archdiocesan Lourdes Pilgrimage.

Fr Tom was a strong singer and put together a talented group at St Kentigern's to provide music at Mass. Although he lived fairly frugally he enjoyed his pipe, a good red wine and fine cheese.

Retirement

After retirement he stayed for a time at St Margaret's in Davidson's Mains and then in Ratho before moving to Holy Cross Parish in the Warriston area in 2008. Fr Daniel Doherty, parish priest of Holy Cross at the time, described him as a "quiet, cheery and prayerful presence".

He said: "He was very supportive to me and was concerned about my workload and offered to help out throughout his time at the parish. He was a very wise man, a bit like a grandfather figure in the parish."

Fr Tom celebrated the 60th anniversary of his ordination in 2016 at St Joseph's House, the former care home and residence run by the Little Sisters of the Poor in Gilmore Place, Edinburgh.

Archbishop Leo Cushley wrote to him at the time saying: "Your continued hard work, and your positive and youthful attitude surely flow from a deep understanding to which you have come, after many years at the altar of God, that at your ordination He changed you and has since used you as a special instrument of His care for the Church and the human family."

Fr Tom was fond of the Little Sisters and would often say Mass for them. He had hoped to reside there in his final years but it sadly closed in 2018. He moved instead to the Holy Rosary Residence in Greenock, which is also run by The Little Sisters. Before Covid he would travel back to Edinburgh a few times a year to catch up with friends that he missed.

He enjoyed decent health into his eighties and would say Mass in the care home's chapel, often leading the singing! (Following his death, one of the sisters remarked ‘Who will lead us in singing now?’). He continued to enjoy walking and was a regular sight along the town’s esplanade.

‘A truly devoted priest’

Mgr Francis Kerr, a retired priest of the Archdiocese and a fellow resident at the Holy Rosary Residence in Greenock, said: “Fr Tom was a very humble and reserved person and a truly devoted priest. He was always willing to supply for me either at St Joseph’s home in Edinburgh or here in Greenock whenever I wished to go on holidays or have an overnight.

“He was very popular with the Sisters, the residents and staff. We will all miss his presence, his cheerful remarks, his good humour and general friendliness towards all as well as his willingness to offer any extra Masses for special groups who would come to the Home for Mass.”

Sir Tom Farmer and his late wife Anne were good friends of Fr Tom. He said: “Throughout the many years of friendship that my wife Anne and I enjoyed with Father Tom McNulty, I was always grateful for his abundant kindness and compassion for people, his wise and clear sharing of the word of Scripture and his wonderful companionship as a man who always had a great story to tell. We who have encountered him can forever be grateful that we met a true man of God.”

Fr Tom’s family said: “Fr Tom was a devoted brother to his sisters, all of whom sadly predeceased him. He would attend family Christmases with his niece, Joanna, and her family while his nephews, Nigel and Chris, spent some of their summer holidays with him in Duns for a number of years. His nephews and nieces further afield also kept in touch with him. He will be sadly missed.”

Fr Tom died peacefully at Inverclyde Hospital on Saturday 6 January after a short illness. He was 90. The Requiem Mass took place at St Kentigern’s on Monday 15 January with Archbishop Cushley as the principal celebrant.

He said in his homily: “The young men who were sent to St-Sulpice in Paris after the War formed an impressive group of friends and comrades. They worked faithfully in this diocese for many years, although their presence is now fading away with the passing of time.

“Fr Tom was a gentle pastor of souls, but he was also a man of firm conviction. He was of another school, the old school, but what a wonderful example he was of the best of it.”

Fr Tom was laid to rest with his mother and father at the family plot at Mount Vernon Cemetery. May he rest in peace.

The Very Reverend Andrew Canon Monaghan

The Very Rev Andrew Canon Monaghan was born on 1st December 1941, the second of four boys living at 3 Kirk Road; he attended St Mary’s Primary and St Mary’s Academy in Bathgate before continuing his studies at the junior seminary at Blairs at the age of eleven (1954-1958).

He was only 16 when he was accepted to study for the priesthood at St Andrew’s College in Drygrange where he spent six years (1958-1964) and was 22 years old when he was ordained to the priesthood at St Mary’s, Bathgate, on 25 July 1964.

The first parish Canon Monaghan served was St Francis Xavier’s in Falkirk where he spent nine years, before moving to St Cuthbert’s in Edinburgh (1973-1975).

During his years in Falkirk, he helped to set up a branch of the national Catholic marriage counselling agency - the Catholic Marriage Advisory Council (CMAC).

He had a great love for music; when he was in the Western General shortly before his death he received a card from a choir member at St Francis Xavier’s, who wrote that the choir still had some of the original members from when Andrew, as a curate, had started it, before concluding: “Thank you, from us all for instilling in us a love and passion for hymns and church music, during your time with us. We shall always be grateful for you.”

He also served as chaplain to the Sacred Heart Convent in Dalkeith from 1975 to 1985 and then as chaplain to St Joseph’s Hospital in Rosewell from 1985 to 1999.

His final parish before retirement was at St Mary’s in Pathhead (1999-2017).

For many years, Canon Monaghan hosted Open Line, a phone-in show on Radio Forth and also presented View from Earth, a weekly religious affairs discussion programme. Both of them ran for over thirty years on Radio Forth, winning many broadcasting awards and his voice became familiar to many people across Edinburgh, Fife and The Lothians.

He was a lecturer and chaplain at Craiglockhart College in Edinburgh in the 1970s and 1980s and also worked as a part-time lecturer at St Andrew's College, Glasgow, until the early 2000s.

The Very Rev Andrew Canon Monaghan died peacefully on Wednesday 3 April 2024 in the care of family members after a short illness. He was 82. The Requiem Mass took place on Monday 15 April at St Mary's Church, Bathgate. May he rest in peace.
