The responsibilities of the Office for Marriage and Families:

- To develop a strategic policy in matters relating to marriage and family life according to the vision and priorities of the Church and of the Archdiocese.
- To form and lead the Archdiocesan Commission on Marriage and Family Life in its role of articulating the Church's vision of marriage and family and supporting those involved in this vocation.
- To ensure effective communication between the Commission and all those involved in the ministry of the sacrament of marriage, and to provide them with support and resources.
- To oversee and coordinate the work of the Archdiocesan Pro-Life Office and the Archdiocesan "Courage" Apostolate.
