Leader

O God our Father, we come to you today, in the month of November, to ask you to surround our relatives and friends who have died with your love and glory.

We will also remember today those men and women who have given their lives in the service of their country.

All

O Lord, listen to our prayers.

Jesus, Remember Me

Leader

Let us now listen to the word of God and through that gain comfort and confidence in the hope of the resurrection.

Child Reader processes with Bible to stand next to the altar.

Child

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said:

I am the resurrection. If anyone believes in me, even though he dies he will live, and whoever lives and believes in me will never die.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

All

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Leader

Let us now pray:

The response to our prayers is -
May they rest in peace.

Child

For those in our families who have died...
May they rest in peace.

Child

For our friends and our loved ones who have died...
May they rest in peace.

Child

For former staff and pupils of St. Andrew's who have died...
May they rest in peace.

Child

For those who have died in wars past and present...
May they rest in peace.

All Sing

Oh Lord hear my prayer

Child places the Class Book of Remembrance on the altar.

Leader

Let us now think particularly of those men and women who have died in the service of their country in wars past and present. Now we will read you an extract from a poem written by a Canadian Army Doctor, during the First World War. As you listen, please reflect on the deep meaning of his words.

In Flanders Field

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Child

We thank you Lord for bringing us together to recall with tenderness and respect those who lost their lives from this community and the many thousands from further afield.

We pray for all those still caught up in conflicts across the world. May we be so inspired by their spirit of love and courage.

Let us all pray for peace, the peace that comes from your love
Oh Father.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Amen

Whilst reflective music is playing each child places a poppy on the altar.

Child

A prayer for peace

Peace is the gentle lapping of the waves across the sandy beach.

Snow softly falling on a winter's night.

The flight of a bird

The smile on a baby's face.

Reading quietly from a favourite book,

Every night when we settle down to sleep.

Peace is a happy heart, when we are content.

Lord, grant us all peace.

Amen

Leader

Leader starts - Eternal rest...

May the souls of the faithful departed...

Leader

God our Father, hear our prayers for our loved ones. Surround them with your mercy. Purify them with your love and bring them and all the dead into the joy of your kingdom. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

All sing

Though the Mountains May Fall

I Will be with You Wherever You Go

*I will be with you wherever you go,
Go now throughout the world!*

*I will be with you in all that you say,
Go now and spread my word!*

Come walk with me on stormy waters.
Why fear? Reach out, and I'll be there.

And you, my friend, will you now leave me,
or do you know me as your Lord?

Your life will be transformed with power
by living truly in my name.

And if you say, "Yes Lord, I love you,"
then feed my lambs and feed my sheep.

Jesus, Remember Me when You Come into your Kingdom

Jesus remember me, when you come into your kingdom
Jesus remember me, when you come into your kingdom

Jesus remember me, when you come into your kingdom
Jesus remember me, when you come into your kingdom

"I assure, this day you will be with me, this day you will be, with me in paradise."

Jesus remember me, when you come into your kingdom
Jesus remember me, when you come into your kingdom

Lord, Hear my Prayer

O Lord, hear my prayer.
O Lord, hear my prayer.
When I call, answer me.
O Lord, hear my prayer.
O Lord, hear my prayer.
Come and listen to me.

Though the Mountains May Fall

*Though the mountains may fall
And the hills turn to dust,
yet the love of the Lord will stand,
as a shelter for all
who will call on His name.
Sing the praise and the glory of God.*

Could the Lord ever leave you?
Could the Lord forget his love?
Though the mother forsake her child,
he will not abandon you.

Should you turn and forsake him,
he will gently call your name.
Should you wander away from him,
he will always call you back.

Go to him when your weary;
he will give you eagle's
wings.
You will run, never tire,
for your God will be you

About The Bible

Three thousand, five hundred years ago, God began instructing men to write down His words. Over the next fifteen hundred years, God continued to speak, and many men recorded these messages.

The early writings were called the "Law" and the "Prophets." These, and the rest of God's words recorded on scrolls, became known as the "Scriptures."

Today these same writings, bound together in one book are called the "Bible."

What makes the Bible so amazing, special and important?

- There has never been a book written in the same way as the Bible!
- The Bible was written by over 40 authors.
- The authors who wrote it came from 3 different continents: Asia, Africa and Europe.
- They wrote from many different places: wilderness, prison, islands and whilst travelling.
- They wrote it at different times, covering a span of 1,500 years.
- They did different kinds of jobs: fishermen, kings, shepherds, a herdsman, a politician, a doctor, a tax collector, a rabbinical scholar and more.
- They all wrote about the same thing!

How many books have you read?

The Bible is very different from all of them.

- The Bible is very old, it was written over a time period of approximately 1,500 years!
- While it is very old, the Bible is still relevant for today.
- It is the most widely read book ever, the all-time Best-Selling Book!
- Many people, and several governments, have attempted to stop people from reading the Bible.
- The Bible is the most loved book of all time.
- There are more translations of the Bible into different languages than any other book.
- There are more handwritten copies of the Bible still in existence than any other old writing.
